

Rare Cased Bakers Patent Percussion Revolver Catalogue-Nr: 700084

A cased Bakers Patent six-shot percussion revolver; perfect crisp action; .44 cal. ; 290 mm total length; engraved scarce iron frame with central hammer, inscribed on top Registered April 24. 1850, on the right side BAKER LONDON and Bakers Patent on the hammer; Birmingham proof marks; excellent chequered walnut grip; barrel, frame and trigger guard with over 98 % blue, case-hardened long spur hammer; blued sliding safety; fitted in original case lined in blue felt with the original accessories, including the rare Baker's percussion cap box; the interior of the lid with the original instructions.

The Baker percussion revolver in the original case and in his condition is very rare

EWB (for Germany and EU, see terms)

Condition:

Unfired revolver in mint condition in his original very fine case.

References:

HEER DER NEUE STOCKEL

Price: 6800 EUR

